

WORSHIP TEAM ONBOARDING PROCESS

1. Sign the agreement and complete the application. Email or hand it to a worship leader at church.
2. A worship team member will contact you for a short phone interview.
3. If it sounds like you're a good fit, you will audition with the band
4. Upon a successful audition, you will complete a 90-day trial period which verifies your commitment and compatibility.

WORSHIP TEAM AGREEMENT

The purpose of the worship team is to use our instruments, voices, and our talents to glorify God, and to use them as a tool to engage people into worship. We play instruments & sing not for us but always for God as an example and model for others in the congregation to do the same. Being on the sound team or projection team means that I am an active member of the Worship Team. Being part of the worship team means I will commit to the following:

1. Time Commitment:
 - a. I commit myself to faithfully practice in preparation for rehearsals and church worship times. This includes viewing the lead sheets, listening to the music if available to me, and practicing my instrument or vocal parts.
 - b. I agree to be on time and know my parts before Thursday rehearsal.
 - c. I will arrive early enough to set up my equipment prior to rehearsal.
 - i. Rehearsal Times: Thursday Evening 7:00pm and Sunday Morning 8:00am
 - ii. Worship Services are: Sunday Morning 9:30am and any other special services that may come up during the year. Team members will be advised well ahead of any planned events.
2. Guidelines for Absences:
 - a. If I am unable to participate on a scheduled Sunday, I understand it is my responsibility to contact the Lead Worshipper I am scheduled with by Tuesday. Our present Lead Worshipers are Kylee Bowman and Blake Evans (view the contact list below). I will also contact other team members to be my replacement.
 - b. Missing Thursday practice means I will not be able to participate on Sunday, unless I have made other arrangements with the Lead Worshipper.
 - c. I understand that consistently missing or being late to Thursday or Sunday rehearsals/worship times will trigger a conversation from worship leadership. If nothing improves, it will result in reduced opportunity to participate on Sundays.
3. Weekly Program. I will consistently check my email for updated information regarding weekly programs. I will make sure that, among other things, obtain chord charts, view worship song sets, and find out other details for the upcoming Sunday. In addition, I will respond to emails sent from Lead Worshipers.
4. Servant Attitude: I commit to developing and demonstrating a servant's attitude and heart. I understand that participating on the worship team is an act of privileged service to God and the church body. I will strive to put others before myself and assist wherever needed (ie. stage tear-down and set-up, picking up garbage and water cups from the stage, keeping the back room clean, etc).
5. Worshippers, not Performers. There are plenty of venues in which musicians perform music, but this isn't one of them. The sole purpose of participating on the team is to lead the church in worship.
6. Be a Peacemaker: The Bible says "Blessed are the peacemakers." (Matt. 5:9). If I have an offense with a leader or someone else on the team, I will go to that person in love and attempt to work it out. If we are unable to work it out I may then approach the lead worshipper or a pastor on staff for assistance in resolving the issue.

WORSHIP TEAM AGREEMENT

7. Committed Participation at Church: As a regular attender, I commit to attending worship services at Christ the King Community Church even when I am not playing/singing. I commit to participate in other aspects of church and body life as I am able, and to submit myself to the leadership of Christ the King Community Church. From time to time, we will invite non-attenders to participate in the worship team as needed.
8. Spiritual Maturity: I understand that serving and leading in worship requires that I have an ongoing relationship with Jesus Christ. I commit to seek a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ as a follower of Him. Whenever possible, I will attend scheduled Bible Studies of Christ the King Community Church so that I may grow in the Word of God together with other members of the church.
9. Testimony outside the church: The Bible calls Christians to be a light in this world of darkness. As part of the worship team I will commit to interact and behave in a Godly way; including being examples to others in the church through my personal life. I will not be involved in any behavior that doesn't reflect a godly life.
10. Dress code: At Christ the King Community Church, we desire the congregation to "come as you are". Generally speaking, our style of clothing is casual. Wear clothing that doesn't distract from worshipping God:
 - a. Men: I will wear clothing that isn't stained, ripped, or otherwise unkempt.
 - b. Ladies: I will refrain from wearing any revealing or distracting clothing – anything too tight (i.e. leggings without a long top & yoga pants or "clingy" fabric that show underwear lines) or bears too much skin. (i.e. no low necklines, no spaghetti straps, no see-through clothing, and hems of skirts need to be to the knee, since we are higher up on stage than the congregation and they look "up" to us. Also if you raise your hands please make sure your shirt/blouse and pants/skirt meet in the middle and there is no gap, and that your underarms are covered. Please consider wearing sleeves!)

I have read and will abide by the Christ the King Community Church Worship Team agreement
